From the Desk of the First Selectman

Thanks to all of you for voting at the May budget referendum we had a marvelous turnout! It is certainly appreciated to see people involved in the process. We will be having a town meeting (early June) to discuss and act on the bonding resolutions on Capital projects approved by the Board of Finance.

While that process continues to move us forward don't forget to join us at the River Park for the outside movies, the summer concerts and the river runs. There is also a robust summer recreation program planned with information available in the Town Clerk's or First Selectman's office.

Please visit the Town website, again comments are appreciated and encouraged. This is a more interactive site that allows for dissemination of material in a more timely fashion, sign up for updates on senior, children and governmental events by visiting ctsprague.org.

We will be working our way around Town roadside mowing, pothole repairing and sweeping. We continue to look for volunteers to help us replace the Little League concession stand. To volunteer call the First Selectman's office and leave your name with Barbara or I.

The Shetucket Village renovations are continuing with a target for completion date of January 2014.

As always thanks for your support

Sprague Garden Club

The garden club does not have meetings during the summer months. Our first monthly meeting of our new year is Wednesday, September 4.

We are working on renovating the fire escape garden at the Grist Mill. The overgrown perennials have been removed and homes found for them. Astilbes, peonies, spring flowering bulbs and daylilies will replace them along with a Korean Allspice Viburnum bush.

If you haven't had a chance to check out the gardens at the Grist Mill, please take time to visit. The town has provided picnic tables and grills behind the building and have removed all the brush along the riverbank. It looks great.

Club members were invited to watch the planting of an herb garden at the LaChance home. Herbalist Cathy Dodge took time to meet with the members to discuss the benefits of using herbs as an alternative to prescription drugs. Thank you to Mrs. LaChance and Cathy for an enjoyable afternoon.

We haven't had our plant sale as I write this. We always enjoy the day and it is fun to visit with everyone who stops by.

Have a wonderful summer.
Jan Settje, Secretary

~SPRAGUE COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS~

Greetings from SCC! It is so refreshing to see the onset of the season of Spring! I hope many people of the community of Sprague had the opportunity to attend the kick-off event at SCC on May 31st for the Community Health programs that will be offered to the people of Sprague. SCC is expanding its partnership with Backus Hospital focusing on a community health initiative for the Sprague Community. There will be a comprehensive schedule of health screening offerings, educational programs, and information regarding securing primary care providers and support services.

This community health initiative will also draw upon the services of Uncas Health District, TVCCA, Generations Family Health Center, United Community and Family Services, and Southeastern Regional Action Council. These organizations coupled with Backus Hospital will offer monthly educational programs with physicians, nurses, and support staff presenting health information and health screenings at Sprague Community Center.

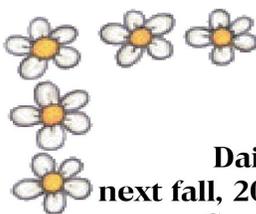

The educational programs and screenings will take place on the first Tuesday of every month, beginning in June, from 6-7:30 p.m. at SCC. Some of the topics to be covered will be: "Managing Your Asthma", "Safety in the Home", "Healthy Eating on a Budget", "Communicating with Your Physician", "Keeping Your Heart Healthy", and "Coping with Holiday Blues." Specific screenings in the afore mentioned areas will also be offered to those who attend the presentations. There will also be a program at the Senior Citizen Center on "Falling Risks."

In addition to these monthly educational sessions, the Backus Health Van will be at SCC for health services, including primary care the first and third Friday of every month from 1:30-3:30 p.m. These services will be for our "Food Friday" Client Friends and the community-at-large. The Senior Citizen Center and the Sprague Community Center are very excited about these program offerings and hope that members of the Sprague community will take advantage of these free services. For further information call 860-822-6595. Start off your Spring with improving your health!

Happy Spring!

Sincerely,

Brenda J. Keefe ~SCC Outreach Coordinator

EARTH MARKET

The Earth Market was successful for its first year. Local maple syrup produced by the Howard,sSprague's Sugar Shack, Bushnell Hollow Road was sold.They introduced us to an interesting recipe for maple syrup salad dressing (Balsamic vinegar,olive oil and maple syrup) Delicious!! Also winners of the Recycled Animal ART SHOW were Grown up catergory Bruce Piekarski (Bottle Fish), children's catergory: Sierra Gauvin/ Colin Michell (caged birds) that will be on display at Townhall Through June.

Cover the Heap

In recent years, the Agricultural landscape in Eastern Connecticut has seen an increase in the number of small farms. The Federal Government has numerous programs that provide assistance to larger commercial farm operations, but the small hobby farms often do not qualify for this assistance. But just like the large commercial farms, small farms can reduce the likelihood of contamination of nearby brooks and ponds from animal manure when they know the most effective methods or receive funding assistance to implement on-farm improvements. In 2013, the Eastern Connecticut conservation District will begin a project that focuses on assisting horse farms in New London and Windham counties with manure management. An unmanaged manure pile can cause water pollution by exporting nutrients and fecal bacteria. Generation over 50 lbs. of manure per animal daily, the livestock on small farms have a considerable impact on water quality. The types of activities ECCD can assist with include improved manure storage practices, erosion control, and storm water management.

An example of basic manure management is that manure should not be spread on fields when the fields are flooded, frozen, snow-covered, or when the soil is saturated (typically November through March). During this time period, manure must be stockpiled until weather conditions are favorable for manure spreading. However, when rain pours down on an exposed pile of manure, nitrogen, phosphorus, and bacteria can be washed away and end up in the nearest brook or pond. Acid resistant tarps are an acceptable method for diverting clean water away from manure piles, and thus provide a simple, cost-effective improvement for manure storage on farms with small numbers of horses. (Good Horse Keeping, 2011) ECCD will be providing acid resistant tarps at a reduced price to qualified farm owners to cover manure stockpiles.

If you would like more information, or help with implementing best management practices on your small farm, Please contact the Eastern Connecticut Conservation District at 860-887-4163 x 403.

Notes from the Tree Warden

I attended the Tree Warden's Annual Meeting this Spring. CL&P's Vegetation Management Director provided us with an update of tree contractors, work planned in each town and funding. A significant change for this year is the amount of money CL&P will spend on "enhanced" tree pruning and removals in their Right of Ways (ROW). The large increase is a direct result of the State's "Two Storm Panel" recommendations following last year's snow storm and hurricane. While the amount of "enhanced" work does not really affect Sprague, the shifting of CL&P's funds to support the "enhanced" work does. CL&P will no longer prune any trees on private property around the lines going to homes from the street. I used to routinely request services to do that work for residents and their contractors would get it done. The only way CL&P will perform this service now is if there are branches physically 'rubbing' on wires on a daily basis - not during a storm or with wet snow - but as a 'regular' every day routine. If you have limbs interfering with wires, contact me and I will forward warranted requests to the appropriate 'desk' at CL&P.

The "newest" pest concern in the state is the non-native Winter Moth. It joins the ever growing list in CT; Asian Long-Horned Beetle (ALB), Emerald Ash Borer (EAB), gypsy moth and orange-striped oak worm. Winter moths have been in the state for several years but have yet to grow to numbers resulting in massive defoliation as has occurred in Mass., particularly along the I-495 corridor. This small (1 1/2" wingspan on adult males - females do not fly) brown moth larvae emerges timed to the bud opening of deciduous and ornamental trees and blueberries. It is almost impossible to distinguish this pest with the Bruce spanworm, except in the lab. (The Bruce spanworm is rarely overly destructive). Since buds have already opened, the best way to control suspected winter moth damage now is to apply Bacillus thuringiensis, also known as Bt to control actively feeding larvae. The state will be conducting an aerial survey in May to spot gross defoliation and then follow up with ground inspections of suspected areas. If you suspect this pest is damaging your trees, you may call the CT Agricultural Experimentation Station at 203-974-8474.

I want to thank Richard Waterman and Erika and Gerry Marletta for their assistance on Earth Day (in Sprague) in planting 250 pine seedlings at the Baltic Reservoir. Replanting has been completed about two-thirds of the way around in anticipation of the reservoir becoming a town water source in the future. I estimate nearly 3000 seedlings have been planted over the last four years with about a 60% survival rate.
